

September 2023

Class 6

This week, in science, as part of our staying alive topic, Class 6 have been learning about the circulatory system in the human body. They used stethoscopes to listen to their heartbeat, acted out how the blood moves around the body and then explained in detail how the heart and blood vessels travel through the entire body!