

October 2023

Class 2

In Class 2 this week, we have been learning all about how to keep our bodies fit and healthy in science. We observed the changes that occur to our body when we exercise and discussed how we felt afterwards. In geography this week, we have been identifying the continents and cities of where we live and are from.