

October 2023

Class 3

Class 3 have enjoyed continuing to investigate and undertake experiments in our science lessons. This week we explored using different magnets to pick up paper clips, in order to find out whether bigger magnets are stronger. We also have consolidated all the unit learning so far, revisiting the concept of 'friction', 'magnetism' and 'forces'.