

October 2023

Class 6

This week in English and science, Class 6 have been investigating and reporting the effects diet, exercise, drugs and lifestyle can have on the way their bodies function. We had to set up a fair test, take careful measurements, analyse the results and then report our findings in a non-chronological report. We have been very busy!

