

November 2023

Class 5

This week Class 5 has been finding out about the Ancient Greeks. They became historians by looking at a selection of artifacts and asking questions about them. They thought about what the artifacts could be, what they might have been used for and what clues they could give us about life in Ancient Greece.