

29 January 2024

Class 1

Class 1 made cauliflower mac and cheese this week. They were shown how to cut the cauliflower with care into small pieces. They also made a cheese sauce, adding the milk a little bit at a time while remembering to keep stirring, so it does not get lumpy.

In English the children have started a new English text, The odd egg. The children were proud to show other children in the school their non-fiction writing about arctic animals.