

29 January 2024

Class 5

In science Class 5 have been trying to identify factors that affect the rate of dissolving. They decided to test the affect of temperature by putting dyed sugar cubes in hot and cold water. After making a prediction and planning a fair test, they carried out the experiment in pairs and recorded their observations.

