

March 2024

Class 1

Class 1 this week have been working hard on their maths number skills. We have been working out the missing number in addition and subtraction sentences. The children have been using cubes and number lines to support them.

In Geography, they have been sorting man-made and natural objects and have drawn their own maps with a key.