

18 March 2024

Class 5

Class 5 have been continuing their geography topic on Antarctica. This week they've been exploring and comparing temperature maps to find out about climate change. They noticed increases in average temperatures over the last 50 years. After they researched how warmer temperatures affect the world's biomes, particularly the polar biome found in Antarctica and the consequences of this on our planet.