

18 March 2024

Class 6

Class 6 have been busy this week completing their non-chronological report on Antarctica. They have been learning about the climate zones and biomes within the polar region and researching the vegetation and wildlife that can be found there.