

22 April 2024

Class 1

In Science, Class 1 are continuing to learn about plants. We have been observing our fabulous garden closely, identifying wildflowers, such as, buttercups, dandelions and daisies. We noticed that some of our peas and herbs have started to germinate!

In maths we have been exploring capacity and volume. We made predictions about which containers have the greatest capacity.

