

06 May 2024

Class 5

Class 5 enjoyed their trip to Into University where they learnt more about universities and the types of subjects people can study there. The class then spent the day learning about zoology and conservation. At the end they had to design a group presentation about a given endangered animal and deliver it to the class and a panel of experts. The class worked well in their teams and demonstrated impeccable behaviour throughout.